Counsel for the State provides the Court with proposed child support worksheet(s) for review and consideration. Counsel indicates that the parties are in disagreement over the amounts of direct payment to credit toward child support.

Based on the matters presented,

IT IS ORDERED denying Father's request for credit toward child support.

Petitioner testifies.

The parties state their position as to the issues presented,

THE COURT FINDS that there is not good cause to deviate from the child support guidelines.

Based on the matters presented herein, and pursuant to the Child Support Guideline Worksheet(s) attached to the Judgment and Order filed herein,

IT IS ORDERED Father shall pay to Mother the sum of $642.00, plus $5.00 Clearinghouse fee, as and for current child support commencing October 1, 2012, and continuing on the same day of each month thereafter. Said amount is to be paid through the Support Payment Clearinghouse by Income Withholding Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED granting Mother judgment for past child support in the amount of $7130.00 for the time period of August 1, 2011, through September 30, 2012.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED Father shall pay to Mother the sum of $25.00 as and for past child support commencing October 1, 2012, and continuing on the same day of each month thereafter until paid in full. Said amount is to be paid through the Support Payment Clearinghouse by Income Withholding Order.

Neither party having private medical insurance accessible to the child(ren) and available at a reasonable cost,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED Father shall pay $50.00 per month for cash medical support beginning the first day of the month following the ninetieth (90th) day after the entry of this order. Father shall provide private medical insurance when it becomes accessible to the child(ren) and available at a reasonable cost. Upon verification that the Father has obtained private insurance, the cash medical support order will terminate on the first day of the month after the policy's effective date or the date DCSE is notified, whichever is later.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED all healthcare expenses incurred for the health and protection of the minor child(ren) not covered by insurance shall be paid 38% by Mother and 62% by Father.

The parties shall account to one another for the children's uncovered healthcare expenses in accordance with Section 9.A of the Arizona Child Support Guidelines, which provides that a party seeking reimbursement for uninsured medical, dental, or vision costs shall make request for reimbursement to the other party within 180 days after the date the services occur and shall provide receipts or other evidence of payments actually made upon request of the other party. The party responsible for reimbursement must pay his or her share, or make acceptable payment arrangements, within 45 days after receipt of the request.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the Federal tax exemption shall be allocated so that Father may claim Justin Daniel Collins (DOB: March 5, 2008) every two out of three years commencing tax year 2013 and Mother may claim the minor child every one out of three years. Father's ability to claim the child(ren) for tax purposes will be dependent upon him having paid in full all current support and all Court ordered arrearage payments due for the calendar year by December 31 (or if by wage assignment, by January 15, of the following year).

The Court's further findings and orders are as contained in the formal written Establishment Judgment and Order signed by the Court as submitted by counsel for the State.

9:42 a.m. Matter concludes.

The payment should show the case number and/or ATLAS case number and the name of the party paying support and the name of the party who will receive the payment.

If payments are made directly to the person who is to receive the support, the payments may be considered a gift and no credit will be given towards the support obligation.

Any change in the paying party's employment and any change in the residential address of either party must be submitted to the Clerk's Office, in writing, within ten (10) days of the change (A.R.S. 25-322(C)). Failure to notify the Clerk's Office of any change may be considered contempt of Court.

Obligor is personally responsible for the timely payment of support as well as the $5.00 monthly handling fee. At any time an employer and/or payor is not paying pursuant to the Income Withholding Order, Obligor must make timely payment of support and fees directly to the Support Payment Clearinghouse. Failure to make timely payment of support may result in a finding of contempt which may result in sanctions, including incarceration.

All parties representing themselves must keep the Court updated with address changes. A form may be downloaded at: <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/SuperiorCourt/Self-ServiceCenter>.
